Distributor's notes

The Château de Viaud Lalande is situated in the village Lalande de Pomerol. The origin of the estate goes back to the 17th century. The present Château was built at the end of the 18th century.

This micro estate (1,8 hectares) owned by the Durand Teyssier family. Philippe, and his son Thomas are now leading the property. The expertise of Thomas in New Zealand, California, or in Château Bélair in Saint Emilion, contributes to the elaboration of the nectar Château Viaud Lalande.

This wine is concentrated and sappy in the mouth. It is distinguished by its delicate tannins thanks to the ageing in oak barrels. Pure, dense fruit with a long finish
